No wonder Madeline Oben-chain prefers a jury of men in her trial for murder. It was said of her recently that she had made a fool of one man, a dupe of another and caused the murder of a third. A woman so schooled in the handling of men should be willing to take her chances with a male jury.

Pity the Rev. John Williamson. He has just been appointed law enforcement officer in Chicago by Mayor Thompson. He is said to have full authority to take all steps he thinks necessary for the suppression of law violations in the big city. Perhaps by this appointment the mayor is calling the hand of some of the critics. Conditions are very bad in Chicago, but it should be admitted that law enforcement very often is not the easy thing that the agitators infer.

The Illinois Commerce Commission affords proof of its sympathy with rural conditions in the finding made authorizing telephone rental increases. In none of the counties served by the Illinois-Bell Co. were the rates for farmers' lines increased. All the additional revenue that the company earns must come from the cities and towns.

SOME GOOD RESULTS.
Among the outstanding results of the President's Conference on Unemployment is the vast amount of public works, chiefly state and municipal, which have already been started during the winter months to provide employment in the present business depression. This was one of the strongest recommendations of the conference when it met in Washington.

Tabulations have been made and it is found that $450,000,000 is now available in the United States for local improvements. In response to letters sent out by Col. Arthur Woods, chairman of the Emergency Committee, 80 percent of the communities affected have notified the conference that work is already in progress, or that it will be started before spring in order to provide local employment.

Many public works officials have notified the conference that they are awarding contracts only on condition that the work be prosecuted throughout the winter whenever weather conditions permit being made to carry on types of work not usually done in winter.

FOR STATE SENATOR.
(From the Springfield Journal.)
Dr. John A. Wheeler is not a new or untried candidate for state senator, nor are his political principles unknown to the people of the forty-fifth senatorial district. It may fairly be said that Doctor Wheeler is a favorite of the voters. His successes at the polls have demonstrated that. After helping for some years to build up the morale and strength of the Republican party in Sangamon county, and after creditably serving the state in the legislature and in the office of game commissioner, Doctor Wheeler decided to enter the race for sheriff of Sangamon county. He was supported by The State Journal and by the most influential men of the Republican party, and he was elected.

The record made by Doctor Wheeler in the sheriff's office was satisfactory to the voters of Sangamon county, and it insured his success when he became the Republican candidate for state senator, again with the support of this newspaper. After four years of active service in the state senate, Doctor Wheeler again presents himself as a candidate, this time for re-election. Re-election will mean that the voters are not disposed to turn against him and repudiate him, but that they are well enough satisfied with the service he has given them and that they feel inclined to encourage satisfaction.

The State Journal has observed nothing in the conduct of Doctor Wheeler to alter the opinion which it expressed when he was a candidate for sheriff and when was first elected to the senate. While his alignment politically has antagonized some of his former political associates, it has in no wise affected his capacity or his opportunities to be of use to the forty-fifth senatorial district.
Doctor Wheeler has made an energetic, capable member of the senate. He represents the capital district with credit to the people of the district. His re-nomination and re-election will be an expression of good political and business judgment on the part of the voters in the district.

AGED FRANKLIN MAN PASSED AWAY THURSDAY

Death of John Whitlock Came After Comparatively Brief Illness—Funeral to be Held Saturday Afternoon.

The death of John Whitlock, a long time resident of Franklin, came at 1:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the family home in Franklin. Deceased had been ill from pneumonia but death was the result of heart disease.

Mr. Whitlock was born in Washington county Tenn., on July 4, 1844, and was more than 77 years of age at the time of death. In early life he came to Morgan county with his parents and has since been resident in the Waverly and Franklin communities. He served for three years in the Civil war.

The deceased was united in marriage to Martha Wood, whose death came about five years ago. One child was born to them, but preceded both parents in death. One brother, George Whitlock of Downing, Mo., and two sisters, Mrs. Eva Gotschall and Mrs. George Bonds, both of Franklin survive together with a number of other relatives.

Mr. Whitlock spent most of his life as a farmer but twenty-seven years ago removed to Franklin, which has since been his home. He was a man who had the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the residence, and burial will be in Franklin cemetery.

FRANKLIN AMERICAN LEGION GAVE DANCE
Members of the American Legion post at Franklin, their families and friends, enjoyed a dance at Marquette Hall Thursday evening. Music was furnished by the Delev-Brown orchestra of this city, and a number of hours were very pleasantly spent by the large crowd present.

Those taking the rank were Henry U. Wolf, Dale Walker, Charles S. Black, George O. Oglesby, Forrest S. Cobey, James L. Wood, Jr., Byron W. Stewart, Leon B. Stewart, John K. Furry, William Benson, Frank J. McLean, William R. Toler, John S. Pratt, James Lawson, Frank B. Kinzie, Clyde Landreth, Eugene E. Darr.

WANT BIG DELEGATION FOR ROAD MEETING

Jacksonville Should Be Largely Represented at Ocean-to-Ocean Highway Gathering—Committee Named.

Because of the importance of having Jacksonville largely represented at the Ocean-to-Ocean highway booster meeting in Springfield Monday, President R. Y. Rowe of the Chamber of Commerce has appointed a special committee to arrange for the tour. This committee includes Col. J. C. Smith, John W. Larson, Dick Wheeler, Charles M. Strawn and Fred Darr.

It is hoped to have fifty or more car loads of citizens the first to leave the north side of the square at 8 o'clock Monday morning. Others will be timed so that all may reach Springfield by 10 o'clock.

The DeSola drum corps is getting along and various arrangements are in the making which indicate that the city will be well represented. Hannibal and Decatur have promised huge delegations and it is especially advisable for Jacksonville to be well represented because of an effort being made in Quincy to change the highway in such a manner that Jacksonville would be eliminated from the route.

DEATHS

Duncan.
Robert Bruce Duncan died at the home of his mother, Mrs. J. W. Moon, 427 Arnett street on Thursday afternoon.

Decedent was born in Franklin January 23, 1881. The past 12 years he has been in California, returning to Jacksonville in the spring of 1921.

He is survived by his mother, stepfather, one sister, Mrs. Charles F. Henderson of this city and two brothers, G. G. Duncan of St. Louis and H. H. Duncan of Champaign.

Funeral services will be held from the residence 427 Arnett street at 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon.
Our dear one from us has gone to dwell with Jesus over there. In the everlasting home free from sorrow, pain and care. All his sufferings now are over. And we know he's happy there; Free from pain forever more. In that land so bright and fair. All is dark within our home, lonely are our hearts today. For dear Bruce we loved so dearly, has forever passed away. But we again shall meet thee, When the days of life have fled; Just across the river yonder, Where no farewell tear is shed.

FATHERS AND SONS BANQUETED THURSDAY

Interesting Programs Given at Four Churches—Words of Wisdom Mingled With Amusement Features.

Father and son banquets were held in several Jacksonville churches Thursday night. In each instance the attendance was large and the interest very apparent. While the programs had some things in common, varied features were introduced.

At State Street Church
At the father and son banquet at State Street church 105 were seated at the tables. Dr. John Thomas, pastor of First Presbyterian church of Springfield, was the principal speaker and had "The Value of Character" as the basis for his very timely remarks. Dr. Thomas intermingled his good advice to the company with some very sprightly stories and the address was one to which both fathers and sons gave close attention.

The preparation of the excellent supper was under the direction of a committee composed of Mrs. E. E. Crabtree, Mrs. James Danskin, Mrs. John Seibert, Mrs. J. K. C. C. Persen, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. William Floreth and Miss Nellie Cunningham and Florence Wardhaugh. The Sunday school orchestra of the church played from 6 to 6:30.

Impromptu addresses were given by E. E. Crabtree, James Danskin, John Seibert, T. M. Tomlinson, and Edward Tomlinson. William Goebel spoke very interestingly on "A Father's Heart's Desire for his Son," and this was responded to by Sheldon Nicol on "A Son's Heart's Desire for His Father."

During the evening several musical selections were given. The program was under the direction of a committee composed of S. M. Foley, Carl Robinson, Ralph Dunlap and Dr. Henry Chapin.

At Centenary Church
The father and son program given Thursday evening at Centenary church was one of the most interesting of these occasions. The committees in charge had made ample preparations and the occasion was a happy one in every detail.

One hundred and twenty fathers and sons attended the banquet which was furnished by the ladies of the church. A. C. Metcalf was toastmaster and the principal speakers of the evening were Dr. Harker and Principal Shafer. A highly enjoyable reading was rendered by Miss Davis of the Illinois Woman's college.

George Wetzel spoke in behalf of the boys present and a number of brief remarks were made by others. Victrola music was rendered and the meeting was voted a very helpful one to all present.

Central Christian Church.
The Fathers and Sons banquet held at the Central Christian church Thursday night was voted as being the most successful for that church in the history of the movement, there being more than three hundred fathers and sons present. An extra effort was put forth this year to see that every boy in the Sunday school and church was fathered for the occasion by some one.

The entire number was seated at one time for a splendid chicken supper served by the pastoral helpers of the church. The regular Sunday school orchestra furnished music during the banquet. Program for the evening was as follows with Rev. Roodhouse serving as chairman:

"Our Boys and the Sunday School"—C. L. Mathis.
"Our Dads"—Yale Pontius.
Reading—Mrs. Ben Roodhouse.
Vocal solo—Miss Lois Harney.
"Our High School"—Paul Bolman.

"Father and Son in the Church"—Rev. M. L. Pontius.
Piano selections—Claude Rynders.
Two reels of motion pictures. Benediction, by the pastor.

First Baptist Church.
The Father and Son banquet at First Baptist church last night was a very successful event. The women's class of the church served the supper at 6:15 o'clock and the arrangements had been of the most generous kind. The Sunday school orchestra furnished music and there was mass singing under the good leadership of Arthur Howells.

Following the serving of the dinner, Alexander Rabjohns presided as toastmaster. The invocation was given by Rev. Mr. Howells and then G. W. Gard talked about "Son and I." The son's viewpoint was considered by Paul Gard and then E. C. Rutherford made a brief address on, "Team Work of Father and Son." "Chums" was the subject assigned to Dr. T. O. Hardesty, and Rev. Mr. Howells laid emphasis upon the cordial relationships that should exist between fathers and sons in their church work.

At the conclusion of the formal program came a tug of war in which the fathers proved too heavy for their offsprings. A football race and several other semi-athletic events and several vaudeville stunts had part on the program, which was one that the adults and the sons enjoyed.

Winchester, Feb. 9.—Mrs. T. D. Smithson passed away at about 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at the family home here. The deceased had been confined to her home since the first of last October, and thru all this long period of suffering had the devoted care of her daughters.

The maiden name of the deceased was Mary Loh and she was born on the old homestead northwest of town seventy-four years ago. Mr. Smithson's death occurred Dec. 20, 1920. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. B. F. Webster of Winchester and Mrs. William Redshaw, living northwest of town. One daughter died in infancy. There are also surviving three grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

PREPARE FOR BIG FLOOD OF PETITIONS

Secretary of State Emerson Expects to Receive Many of Them Today—Those by Mail Will be Cared For First.

(By The Associated Press) SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.—Secretary of State Emerson's office prepared tonight for the flood of petitions expected to be filed tomorrow by candidates in the April 11 primaries. Tomorrow is the first filing day.

Many candidates for the legislature were in the capital tonight to put their petitions in the local mail. Secretary Emerson having announced that petitions received by mail would be the first handled.

Charles G. Stevenson, of Bloomington an attaché of the state treasurer's office, announced his candidacy for treasurer today.

The only other Republican candidate definitely announced for state treasurer is Oscar Nelson of Geneva, former treasurer of Kane county.

Mr. Stevenson is a relative of Louis G. Stevenson, former Democratic secretary of state and is said to be the only Republican in the Stevenson family whose most distinguished member was the late Adlai Stevenson, former vice-president.

Friends of W. H. H. Miller, director of registration and education who was a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor on the Small ticket in 1920, asserted tonight that he was no longer a prospective candidate for state treasurer.

The only other state office to be filled this year is that of superintendent of public instruction. Superintendent Francis G. Blair is expected to file his petition tomorrow. His only prospective Republican opponent tonight is A. M. Shelton of Crystal Lake, chairman of the state educational commission.

IOWA FARMERS ARE NOT BURNING CORN

Many Farmers Have Gone on Record as Opposed to Practice—County Agents Make Special Effort to Learn Facts.

AMES, Iowa.—(By The A. P.)—Iowa farmers are not burning corn this winter, except to a very small extent. For the greater part, such corn as has been burned has been moldy or inferior corn, not suitable for feeding or marketing, and that has always been done more or less. It is the judgment of men who are in close touch with the situation that neither the supply of corn in Iowa nor the market price has been appreciably affected by the very limited corn burning in the state.

These statements about the situation are based on reports just obtained from county agents by R. K. Bliss, the director of agricultural extension at Iowa State College. The county agents generally are in close touch with the situation and many of them have made special effort to secure information.

In 40 of 84 counties reporting to date, county agents say that no corn is being burned; in 5 counties they say that that not more than 10 per cent of the farmers are burning some corn, usually with coal and wood; in one county 2 percent of the farmers thus reported to be burning corn; in 6 counties agents say that more or less moldy and inferior corn is burned; in 12 other counties, agents say that very little, or a negligible amount is used for fuel. In one county corn is burned in the furnaces of the county court house, and the county infirmary.

It is interesting that farmers have in a good many counties gone positively on record against corn burning. In many sections, efforts were made in farm bureau meetings to secure endorsement of a movement to burn at least 100 bushels of corn on every Iowa farm. Almost invariably county agents report that resolutions to that effect were defeated by decisive vote.

PEORIA MAN RETURNS HOME

Peoria, Ill., Feb. 3.—J. B. Harper, aged Peoria man who has been missing since December 30, was returned home tonight by a son and told a story of being attacked, drugged and put in a freight car headed for Kansas City by two men, believed to have been whisky thieves.

Harper said he was on his way to visit friends at Pekin, near here, when two men grabbed him and threw him in a taxi-cab. According to the man's story one of the men said: "You saw us steal that booze and we are going to do away with you so you won't be blabbing it around."

Harper said he was chloroformed and knew nothing more of his experience until he awoke in a freight car at Kansas City.

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Three weeks ago, Peter Bibik, out of work, was wandering the streets when he struck up friendship with a Great Dane. Bibik, weak from lack of food, fell in a busy street yesterday and the dog, halting traffic, stood guard over the man, protecting him from passing trucks and wagons. The dog also kept pedestrians at bay until a policeman, coaxed him from his post with a piece of meat until Bibik could be revived.

JUDGE LANDIS STARTS PROBE OF OFFICIALS

Bootlegger Says He Fixed His Case with Good Money

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—A self-confessed bootlegger today started Federal Judge K. M. Landis on the trail of "fixers" in the federal building when he asserted he had paid $1,500 to have a liquor case dropped.

The investigation led to the summoning of Colonel John V. Clinkin and Meyer Linker, assistant district attorneys, for questioning by Judge Landis. Sam McGowan, negro clerk in the county recorder's office alleged to have accepted the money admitted receiving $1,043.50.

Walter Flowers, negro porter, started the investigation after he was sentenced to jail on a charge of selling six cases of whiskey.

"I paid good money to have this case fixed up," he protested. Judge Landis, who was in charge of the October grand jury when the "no bill" against Flowers was voted, immediately ordered him into court.

McGowan at first denied, but later admitted that he had asked Colonel Clinkin to do what he could for Flowers.

Mr. Linker told Judge Landis that at Colonel Clinkin's suggestion he had sent no witnesses before the grand jury in the Flowers' case.

Colonel Clinkin was then questioned by Judge Landis.

Colonel Clinkin said he had known McGowan for several years and thought he could trust him and stated that every day people came in asking that cases be "sleaze prosessed."

There is only one thing for you to do under such circumstances," Judge Landis said, "tell them they will have to settle their cases in court."

Judge Landis required McGowan to promise to remain in the city pending further investigation, while Judge Carpenter announced the sentence against Flowers had been set aside and the case would be reheard. Federal agents immediately started an investigation of this and other liquor cases.

DIAMONDS As an Investment*A Little Chat About Diamonds

No reduction in the price of diamonds is in prospect—That is the official word cabled to this country from the London Diamond Syndicate. Dealers must buy the GENUINE diamonds at those prices, or go without. A GENUINE diamond of flawless quality always brings its original price, and frequently more.

There has been some reductions made on "Diamonds" but even the uninformed knows that these cannot be quality stones.

There are on the market nineteen grades of diamonds for jewelry and mechanical purposes, but you can easily count on the fingers of one hand the grades that spell g-u-a-r-a-n-t-e-e and constitute a real investment. And we are able to show a number of beautiful and remarkable stones of this latter class.

Next week we shall tell our patrons something about jewelry prices.

J. H. S. WILL PLAY JERSEYVILLE HIGH

Meet Old Foe in David Prince
This Evening — Locals Will Fight Hard to Keep Slate Clean

Couch Mitchell's undefeated high school basketball five will play Jerseyville high in David Prince gymnasium this evening.

Time was when Jerseyville was looked upon with fear by local rooters. However, since the present season opened nothing instills fear into the Jacksonville rooters as they have come to think they have the best team in the state.

Jerseyville has a good team this year, tho it is not so good as in past years. However, in Daniels as forward and Egelhoff at center they have a combination that will bear watching.

Last week Jerseyville lost to White Hall high but not until after a hard struggle. In that game Daniels and Egelhoff proved the main cogs in the Jerseyville scoring machine.

Couch Mitchell has been driving his men hard all week and they will be in good shape with Hunt back in the lineup. The greatest trouble Mitchell is having is to keep the men from getting over-confident.

So far this season they have not shown that tendency but have gone into every game and carried the fight to their opponents from the first to the last whistle. It is this fight and speed that carried them thru twelve victories. The men will start the game tonight with the determination of making it thirteen straight.

While Mitchell has not announced his lineup it is probable that at the start of the game it will be, Goebel and Hunter forwards; Punnam, center; Hunt and Arter guards. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

KNIGHTS WILL PLAY CHAPIN INDEES TONIGHT

Local Tossers Book Game With Strong Team—Contest Will Be Played in Liberty Hall.

The Knights of Columbus basketball team will play the Chapin indees in Liberty Hall tonight. The game will be called at 8 o'clock.

The Knights had no game scheduled for this week but yesterday they had an offer from the Chapin team for a game here. Manager Hosp was glad to book the game because he believes it will put his men on edge for the second game with the Dokays which will be played next Monday evening.

Chapin has a strong team and has played some good games this year. The men are all experienced and have played together for several years. The Knights probably will use the same lineup that played in the Dokay game Monday night.

KNOX WINS GAME FROM LOMBARD

GALESBURG, Ill., Feb. 9.—Knox College basketball team defeated Lombard 20 to 19 tonight in one of the closest contests in which the two Galesburg institutions ever participated. With the score 19 to 10 at the end of the first half, Knox spurred into the lead early in the second, but Lombard cut the lead to one point at the timer's whistle. Three baskets from the center of the floor by Swanson, Lombard guard, featured the game. The victory places Knox in the lead in the I. A. C. race.

FUNDS FOR COLLEGES GIVEN LIBERALLY

News of Educational Campaign Gratifying. Notwithstanding Present Conditions.

It is interesting to note how well campaigns for funds for various educational institutions are progressing notwithstanding the somewhat unfavorable business conditions. The board of education of the Methodist church in addition to other organizations has kept earnestly busy in the campaigns for funds for institutions with which the church is associated. Dr. John W. Hancher, who is counselor in finance for the board, wrote recently to Dr. Harker, telling him some facts about the campaigns which are now in the preliminary stage.

Among the institutions so listed are Union college, Barbourville, Ky., University of Chattanooga, at Chattanooga, Tenn.; the College of the Pacific at San Jose, Cal., and the Baldwin-Wallace college at Berea, Ohio.

Another $100,000 subscription has been made in the Baldwin-Wallace college campaign, the third of that denomination for that institution. These liberal subscriptions have been made notwithstanding the fact that the campaign does not officially begin until April 2.

One subscription of $100,000 has been given toward the Chattanooga fund. Dr. Hancher is just now actively engaged in the campaign at Dickinson college, Carlisle, Pa., where an excellent start has been made.

MURRAYVILLE WINS FROM CHAPIN HIGH

Defeat Visitors By Score of 28 to 19—Victors Show Reversal of Form.

Murrayville, Feb. 9.—Showing a reversal of form over that displayed in the last few games Murrayville High took the Chapin High five into camp here tonight by a score of 28 to 19.

Murrayville's players had their eye on the basket and every man on the team scored except R. Riggs. Wright was the high point maker. Chapin only had one man who was able to get by the guarding of the Murrayville team. Unken at forward scored six field baskets.

The game was a fast one and was witnessed by a large crowd. Murrayville seems to have recovered from her slump and hopes to win the remainder of the games on her schedule. Murrayville plays Bluffs here Saturday night.

BLUFFS, Feb. 9.—In a fast, clean game here tonight the Bluffs high school basketball team defeated the Griggsville players by a score of 40 to 29. The game was witnessed by a large number and was one of the most exciting of the season here. This makes thirteen out of fifteen games this season which the Bluffs boys have won, and the record is one of which they are justly proud. ILLINOIS COLLEGE WILL PLAY NORMAL

Blue and White Resume schedule Saturday Night After Lay off Week for Examinations—Men are Rounding Into Shape Again.

The Illinois College basketball schedule, interrupted for a week while the players disposed of the semester examinations, will be resumed Saturday night when Normal comes to the local floor. On their recent trip when Illinois trounced the Normal team at Normal, the Illinois players had gone through a fast game with Wesleyan on the previous night and were handicapped somewhat in playing against a fresh team. Normal claimed to be crippled at that time by the loss of Hicks, their scoring ace at forward, who had not been able to satisfy faculty scholastic requirements. Whether Hicks will be in the Normal lineup Saturday night is not certain. If he is the Illinois guards will have a busy time keeping this lanky boy away from the goal.

The Illinois College team will be stronger than one which played Normal three weeks ago. Jones is back at guard playing his usual aggressive game. He has had more experience than Burns and is not so easily outwitted by the strategy of opponents. Cully, at the other guard, is playing faster than ever. Capt. Mellon at center is keeping up his pace set in the Normal and Eureka games. Hatt, the former Wheaton College player, is now eligible and along with Autrus and Dale is stepping lively and shooting accurately from the forward position.

Farrell, Frazer and McConnell at forwards; Jack Roberts and Witasehek at center; Gard, Struck and Best at guards, give Coach Harmon a strong set of reserve players.

The game Saturday night will start at 7:30 in order to permit the Normal team to catch the east bound Wabash train. Brazleton, former Quincy college player, who refereed the Monmouth game here, will officiate.

COACH STAGG TALKS OF PROFESSIONALISM

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—Telling how he had turned down an offer of $1,000 to become a professional while attending Yale on $1.16 a week, Alonzo A. Stagg, University of Chicago athletic director, in an address today blamed betting for the inroads of professionalism in college athletics and declared that these inroads were the most demoralizing thing to clean athletics.

"Nothing is more demoralizing than the feeling how much is in it for me," Mr. Stagg said in addressing a city club luncheon. "There is a fundamental difference between the professional and the amateur and that difference starts at an early age. The athletic impulse starts in childhood and the stimulus changes as the boy grows older to that of emulation, of being a real part in a social group. Then as he grows still older he becomes a part of more organized groups and college athletics is one of these developments.

"At that time competition becomes keener and the group impulse becomes stronger. Then, as his skill develops there is a possibility that it may become capitalized. It is in that case where competition becomes keen that betting begins.

"This betting is his first step toward professionalism. He finally is induced to become a professional and generally the inducement is the result of some betting plan.

"The temptation is strong but the American youth should be stronger."

DANGER OF JUST LETTING A COLD RUN ITS COURSE

Common Coughs and Colds That Hang on Persistently Are Apt to Lead to Serious Complications. Declare Authorities.

Public Warned to Beware of a Three Days' Cough and Break it Up Before It's Too Late, by Taking Kurokol, the New Scientific Discovery.

Money Refunded in Every Instance Where Kurokol Fails to Bring Relief.

Leading authorities are using every effort to arouse the public to the danger of letting common cold just run their course for it is now definitely known that many serious lung complications such as pneumonia, grippe, etc., are the direct result of colds that hang on persistently.

Colds are curable and preventable and it is a duty everyone owes himself as well as his neighbors to break up any cold they may contract, before some serious disease gets him in its clutches. It is pointed out that a three days' cough is nature's warning and the time for immediate action has arrived.

Of all cough and cold remedies, Kurokol, the new scientific treatment, which has been accomplishing such remarkable results all over the United States and Canada, probably provides the safest, surest and quickest, as well as the most practical treatment for colds yet discovered.

According to the statements of thousands who have used it Kurokol is almost magical in its effect. The first dose usually stops the tendency to sneezing and coughing, and relieves the feeling of discomfort, and the second and third doses usually suffice to stop the progress of a cold altogether.

The wonderful efficiency of Kurokol in breaking up a cold is best shown by the fact that all druggists are instructed to refund money in any case where it fails to give satisfactory results after three doses have been taken. (Adv.)

FORMER RESIDENT VISITOR IN CITY

Charles Martin Searching for Facts About Funeral of His Father John Bingham a Civil War Veteran.

Charles Martin of Vermillion, is spending a few days in Morgan county. Years ago he was a resident of Jacksonville and as a boy attended the third ward school. He is here at this time particularly to look up some facts with reference to his father, John Bingham, a veteran of the Civil war. Mr. Bingham served in Co. D, 26th Illinois Infantry. He was mustered into the service August 27, 1861 and served for more than three years.

Among the notable engagements in which he took part were the battles of Farmington, Miss., in May, 1862; luka, Miss., September '62; Corinth, Miss., October '62; and he was badly injured at Missionary Ridge November 25, 1863.

His death occurred in 1869 as the result of the injuries received while in the army service. Mr. Bingham's name does not appear on the soldier's monument in the park and Mr. Martin does not have all the facts in connection with his death. His purpose in coming at this time is to try to find some county records or from individuals the facts about his father's death and the location of the grave.

ANNOUNCE CAST FOR SOCIAL SERVICE PLAY

Some of Best Known Local Talent Will Be Seen—Brief Outline of Play.

Parson Smythe, a lover of congenial atmospheric conditions and the pompous, artificially inclined chaperone, plays a prominent part in "The Masquerade Party," to be staged by the Social Service League. The parson is inclined to look upon such a party as foolish, absurd, an escapee that does not appeal to or harmonize with "congenial atmospheric conditions." He consequently refuses absolutely to be a partisan to the affair, because, as he says, he "cannot imagine himself sinking his revered personality as it were, and capering around like an idiot for the amusement of the foolish whims of youth. It is only the knowledge of the chaperone's presence that induces him to stay. She feels flattered by his attentions and the all severity to the parson that in real life she does in such innocent sports. She finally prevails upon the parson to do the same, to discard his attitude of unfriendliness and to join with her in a free, buoyant spirit of the night's activities. Without much persuasion the parson changes his method of thought completely and is caught with the others in the snares of cupid. Mrs. Samuel and Roger Carter are to play the parts of Parson Smythe and the chaperone in "The Masquerade Party," a sufficient guarantee that the characters will be well represented. The situations that arise are brought out very successfully both by Mr. Metcalf and Mrs. T. C. MacVicar and will surely keep the audience in an uproar of laughter.

The characters:

Bridget, the Cook—Miss Armstrong.

Jimmie—Charles Capps.

Billie—Robert Straton.

Grace—Esther Davis.

John, Jr.—Felix Farrell.

Susie Weber—Miss McClelland.

Auntie—Miss Priest.

MUST REACH AGREEMENT ON STATE AID ROAD Members of the county board yesterday inspected the state aid road in district 3 north of the city. This is the district from which property owners in large numbers met at the court house Wednesday and made protest to the commissioners about a change which had been recently made. The district yesterday was referred to as No. 2.

The county commissioners recently designated the east road as a state aid highway, and cancelled the order relating to the west road. As a result of the controversy the county board yesterday sent notice to the property owners in the district, that no action at all would be taken in designating either road for state aid until the property owners themselves had reached an agreement. A communication to that department.

Effect. A communication to that effect.

Parent-Teacher Association of Third Ward Meets.

The Parent-Teacher Association of the third ward school met last evening at the Franklin school for the regular monthly meeting. There was a good attendance and an unusually interesting program was given. State's Attorney Carl E. Robinson made the principal address of the evening and spoke in an interesting way of the work done by the association of parents and teachers and the cooperative spirit which it typifies.

Before Attorney Robinson's address a program of music and readings was given. Miss Mary Clark sang a group of songs; Miss Christine Cotner of the Illinois Woman's College, played a piano solo and Miss Mary Rose Adams, also of the College, gave a group of readings. Miss Audrey King gave a violin solo and the Randle sisters sang several songs. A group of songs by the third grade pupils of the Morton school and reading by Dale Bond completed the program which preceded the address. A social hour came at the close of the evening.

Westminster Organizations Met at Breeding Home.

Mrs. W. L. Breeding entertained the Woman's Guild of Westminster church yesterday afternoon at her home on Mound avenue. The program was in charge of Miss Adelaide McCune who read a chapter from the study book on the Bible and Missions and led the discussion which followed. Valentine colors and decorations were used in the refreshments which were served during the social hour.

A business session was held and officers elected for the year. Those named for office were:

President—Miss Catherine Barr.

Vice-president—Mrs. H. E. Kamm.

Treas.—Miss Louise Holmes.

Secretary—Mrs. James Bentley.

Last evening Miss Mary Frances Breeding was the hostess for the Mission band of Westminster church. Miss Jessie Holmes is the head of the mission band, which includes fourteen girls and last night Miss Rhoda Rammelkamp gave a paper on the Near East, the last of a series of this subject. The band will take up China for the next course of study.

The young people enjoyed games and music after the program and the evening was very gayly spent. Delicious refreshments, suggestive of St. Valentine's day were served by the hostess.

Mrs. Lazenby Hostess to Mound Woman's Club.

The Mound Woman's Country club met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lazenby west of the city. The assistant hostesses for the day were, Mrs. W. T. Richardson, Mrs. Lewis Perbix, and Mrs. Scott Holmes.

"Invitations in the United States," was the subject of a paper by Mrs. Richardson, which was to have been read in November but because of a change in the program was given yesterday. The roll call, "My Most Appreciated Invention," in connection with this paper, was also given yesterday. Miss Mary Tholen had the February paper on "The Flower Garden," and the roll call for yesterday was, "My Most Satisfactory Flower." The table talk Thursday was on "Home Made Valentines" and the ladies gave clever and practical suggestions for making them.

A short business session was held, presided over by Mrs. John T. Gunn the president of the club, and at this time it was reported that three-fourths of the sum pledged to the Tuberculosis Sanatorium has been raised and paid into the organization. The refreshments which were served during the pleasant social hour at the close of the afternoon, carried out the pretty ideas of St. Valentine's day.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS HAD VARIED THEMES

"Talk Jacksonville Week," is Approved and Show Plans Progress—Big Delegation Urged for Ocean to Ocean Highway Meeting.

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a regular weekly meeting Thursday night with President R. Y. Rowe presiding. Most of the directors were present for this session. C. Y. Rowe and Wood Phillips as members of a special golf committee conferred with the directors. The suggestion has been made to the park board that one of the employees there be a man who has experience both in landscape gardening and as a golf instructor.

The petition, largely signed, has been circulated and presented to the park board and the suggestion is made that the chamber of commerce also express its approval of the plan.

After some discussion this was the action taken by the board last night.

Secretary Welch reported that everything is moving along in a satisfactory way with reference to the automobile show and the demand for space has been excellent. The automotive men and the Chamber of Commerce are working jointly upon this proposition.

The plan for "Talk Jacksonville" week was approved and a committee will be appointed, with the thought in mind of working out this week in connection with the automobile show and merchants' position. Special attention was called to the traveling men's booster meeting which will be held tonight. The secretary reported that in accordance with instructions of the directors he had sent a communication to Mr. Berger of Meredosia, stating that the Chamber of Commerce will be responsible for the payment of $2,000 toward the Meredosia bridge project when the work has been done.

Special attention was called to the Ocean to Ocean Highway meeting to be held in Springfield, Monday, when Gen. Pershing will make an address. V. R. Riley supplemented the statement of Secretary Welch with reference to the importance of this meeting and said that Jacksonville should be very ably represented.

The subject of an official color for the city of Jacksonville was mentioned and a committee will be named to confer with the city council. Some other matters of general interest were discussed and the directors adjourned at 9:40.

YEOMEN TO OBSERVE 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Jubilees Will be Held by 6,000 Lodges Throughout the United States.

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Feb. 9.—The Brotherhood of American Yeomen will celebrate its twenty-fifth anniversary by jubilees in 6,000 lodges throughout the United States on Feb. 25, according to an announcement from its headquarters made here today.

Twenty-five years ago, twenty-five men and women met on Feb.
25 at Bancroft, Ill., and organizaed the society. There were then eighty-five other fraternal societies in the United States. The Yeomen now stand fourth in supply of membership, with 300, 000 members distributed in every state in the union.

This year will be marked by the building of a home for the orphans and half-orphans of the society, which will rank among the largest institutions of its kind in the world and eventually will represent an outlay of $10,- 000,000, the announcement says.

Keen rivalry among the states has developed to have the home located within their borders. Offers of sites from practically every state in the union have been received by the Yeomen at their central headquarters in Des Moines. The location of the home will be determined in the next few months.

"Save the American child," is the idea back of the home. The motherless and fatherless children will be taken into family groups in charge of carefully selected educators. Play, industry, schooling, healthy morals, social direction, religion and child welfare will all figure in the program which is to mould the children into the best types of manhood and womanhood.

A. N. Farmer of Grand Rapids, Mich., has been selected to be superintendent of the institution.
Mr. Farmer was for twelve years superintendent of schools of Evanston, Ill., and is an educator of national reputation.

SUPREME COURT TO PASS ON CABARETS

Will Decide on Validity of Chicago's 1 O'clock Closing Law.

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.—
Must Chicago cabarets and restaurants stop the syncretizing strains of their orchestras at 1 a.
m. and send dancers from the floor, or is the city's 1 o'clock closing ordinance null and void?
This is a question the Illinois supreme court is expected to decide this month.

The question reached the state's highest tribunal when the Green Mill Gardens permitted its patrons to dance until 2:30 a.
m. and won a "not guilty" verdict in the municipal court on charges of violating the ordinance.
Naming June 9 and 10, 1921,
as the specific dates, the corporation counsel's office began suit against the gardens for defying the 1 o'clock closing ordinance of 1918.

Both sides agreed that meals and soft drinks were sold in the gardens, that entertainment by professional performers ended at midnight and that the orchestra continued to play until 2:30 a. m. while patrons danced, but Thomas Chalmers, president of the corporation which operates the gardens, would not consider the ordinance at its face value.

When the municipal court viewed the statute in the same light the city's law department appealed to the supreme court, contending that the ordinance is "reasonable" and valid. Permits to remain open until 3 a. m. can be obtained only after a police investigation and an order from the mayor, the corporation's counsel office declared.

The city's lawyers expressed a fear that if the ordinance is declared invalid, resorts which would serve as "hangouts" for thieves, thugs and crooks, would spring up in all parts of the city.
While there is nothing in the evidence to show that the sale or use of intoxicating liquors was made or permitted "it is a well known fact that this is the case," the city's bill declares, "not only in the Green Mills Gardens, but in other restaurants interested in the outcome of the case."

'Lincoln the Christian Theme of Dr. Spoonts

Dr. W. E. Spoonts, pastor of the Northminster Presbyterian church addressed the students of the David Prince Junior High school yesterday morning, and had for his subject, "Lincoln, the Christian."

Dr. Spoonts' address was one full of inspiration to the students, showing them the value of Christian ideals and living. The address was as follows:

Lincoln's Autobiography.
The first man who approached Mr.
Lincoln to write his life was Mr.
Scraps, of the Chicago Tribune.
"Scraps," said Lincoln, "It is a piece of folly to attempt to make anything out of me or my early life.
It can all be condensed into a single sentence and that sentence you will find in Grey's Elegy. The short and simple annals of the poor. That is my life and all that you or any one else can make out of it."

Preaching in Lincoln's Boyhood Days.
A recent author said that Lincoln never lived in a community having a church building until he went to the Legislature in Vandalia, in 1834.
This probably is true if we insist upon its meaning a house of worship owned exclusively by one denomination, but the same author reminds us that there was a log meeting house within three miles of Lincoln's childhood home in Kentucky.
He was born the 12th of February and by May or June, when there was monthly preaching at the log meeting house, his mother, Mary, mounted her horse and rode to the meeting with Sarah sitting before him in the saddle and she with Abraham in her arms, and they rode to meeting.
If they had but one horse instead of two they would have gone just the same. Thomas Lincoln was too shiftless to have a horse block but Nancy could mount the horse from any of the numerous stumps in the vicinity of her home. She and every other young mother in the neighborhood knew how to ride and carry a baby.
Arrived at the log meeting house,
they halted their horses to swing limbs without breaking the bridle reins. Nancy would go inside immediately and take her seat on the left side of the room. Thomas remained outside, gossiping with his neighbors concerning crops and politics, and maybe swapping a horse before the services had gotten fairly under way.
After while he heard the preacher lining and singing the opening hymn, the high voices of the women joining his melody first in a low voice, then in a more confident as the hymn proceeded. Then Thomas and his neighbors struggled in and set on the right side of the house. The floor was puncheon and so were the seats; they were rudely split slabs.
There were no glass windows. On either side of the house one section of the log had been sawed out about four feet from the floor but most of the light came in through the open door, or was afforded by the fireplace, cold water was poured from lumpy lay the preacher's Bible and hymn book, if he had a hymn book;
no one else had one, and beside these were a bucket of water and a gourd.
There was no time in the service when Thomas Lincoln did not feel free to walk up to the pulpit and drink a gourd of water, the same as any other member of the congregation, the preacher included. As for Nancy, she spread her riding skirt under her seat and laid Abraham there, and when her baby grew lumpy, she nursed him just as other women nursed their babies. In the autumn just before fodder piling time, there was an occasional camp meeting or big revival, followed by a baptizing, which brought multitudes of people from long distances. Thomas Lincoln is alleged by Herndon to have been a Free Will Baptist in Kentucky, a Presbyterian in the latter part of his life in Indiana, and finally a Disciple.

The Methodist Circuit Riders.
It is a remarkable thing that the Lincoln family appears never at any time in its history to have been strictly under the influence of Methodism. This is not because they did not know of it; no pioneer could hide so deep in the wilderness as to be long hidden from the Methodist Circuit riders. The prevailing and almost sole type of religion in that part of Indiana during Lincoln's time was Baptist, and in spite of all that Mrs. Lincoln believed about the freedom of it, it was a very unprogressive type of religion. The preacher believed and spat and whined, and cultivated an artificial "holiness" and denounced the Methodist and blasphemed the Presbyterian and pointed a hell whose horror even in the backwoods was an atrocity.
Against it the boy Abe rebelled.
Many another boy with an active mind has been driven by the same type of preaching into infidelity. Dr.
Johnson quotes as indicative of the religious mind of the young Lincoln the two lines which he wrote in his fourteenth year in a note on the fly leaf of his school book, and the two lines are these:

"Abraham Lincoln his hand and pen,
He will be good but God knows when,
Good boys who to their books apply
Will all be great men by and by."

Commenting on these, Dr. Johnson says, "These show two things: First, that the youthful boy had faith in his mother's God; and, second, that he believed his mother's teachings." In like manner Dr. Johnson takes the four hymns which Dennis Hanks remembered to have been sung by himself and Abe and says, "A soul that can appreciate these hymns must recognize first that without the shedding of blood there is no remission from sin; second, that Jesus Christ died upon the Cross for the salvation of the world; third, that life without the Saviour is an empty bubble, and fourth, that loyal devotion to the Christ and His cause is man's highest calling, and the test of true character. I think his creed is better brought out in the epitaph he composed for himself that ran on

in this wise:

"Here lies poor Johnny Kongapod, (A Kickapoo Indian)
Have mercy on him, Gracious God,
As he would do if he was God
And you were Johnny Kongapod!"

Lincoln Never Used Liquor.
He never drank liquor of any kind and never chewed or smoked. He was never heard to swear, though Judge Weldon said at Old Salem Chautauqua that once in his life when he was excited he said, "By Jing!"

Lincoln to His Dying Father.
On January 12, 1851, Lincoln wrote to his step brother, John D. Johnson,
"I sincerely hope father may recover his health, but tell him to remember to fall upon and confide in the great and good and merciful Maker, who will not turn away from him in any extremity. He notes the fall of a sparrow, and numbers the hairs of our head, and He will not forget the dying man who puts his trust in Him. Say to him that if we could meet now it is doubtful whether it would be more painful than pleasant, but that if it be his lot to go now, he will soon have a joyous meeting with many loved ones gone before, and where the rest of us, through the help of God, hope to long to join them."

Lincoln Considers a Dying Woman.
An incident comes to us from Captain Gilbert Green who was a young printer living in Springfield, "Green" said Lincoln to him one day on the streets of Springfield, "I've got to ride out into the country tomorrow to draw a will for a woman who I believed to be on her deathbed. I may want you for a witness. If you haven't anything else to do, I'd like to have you go along." The invitation was promptly accepted. On the way to the farmhouse the lawyer and the printer chatted delightfully, cementing a friendship that was fast ripening into real affection. Arriving at the house, the woman was found to be near her end. With great gentleness Lincoln drew up the document disposing of her property as she desired. Neighbors and relatives were present, making it necessary to call on Green to witness the instrument. After the signing and witnessing of the will the woman turned to Lincoln and said with a sigh, "Now I leave my affairs for the world arranged satisfactorily. I am thankful to say that long before this I have made preparations for the other life I am so soon to enter.
Many years ago I sought and found Christ as my Saviour. He has been my stay and comfort through the years, and is now near to carry me over the river of death. I do not fear death, Mr. Lincoln. I am really glad that my time has come for loved ones have gone before me and I rejoice in the hope of meeting them so soon." Instinctively the friends drew nearer the bedside. As the dying woman had addressed her words more directly to Lincoln than to the others, Lincoln, evincing sympathy in every look and gesture, bent toward her and said, "Your faith in Christ is wise and strong; your hope of a future life is blessed. You are to be congratulated in passing through life so usefully, and into the life beyond so hopefully." A member of the family offered him the family Bible. Instead of taking it, he began reciting from memory the 23rd Psalm, laying emphasis upon "Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil, for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me". Still referring to the Bible, Lincoln began reciting from the 14th chapter of John: "Let not your heart be troubled," etc. After which he recited various familiar hymns, closing with "Rock of Ages, cleft for me". Then with a tenderness and pathos that enthralled everyone in the room, he spoke the last stanza,
"While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eyes have closed in death,
When I rise to world's unknown,
See Thee on Thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in Thee."

Lincoln's Religious Life in Springfield.
This has been the subject of much controversy. He emerged from grinding poverty into a condition in which he owned a home and had a modest sum of money in the bank. From an ill-trained fledgling lawyer, compelled by his poverty to share a bed in a friend's room above the store, he had come to be a recognized leader of the Illinois bar. From an obscure figure in State politics he came to be a recognized leader of a political party. He came into a settled condition as the husband of a brilliant and ambitious woman and the father of a family of sons to whom he was devotedly attached.
For the first time he lived in a community where there were buildings wholly dedicated to the purpose of public worship; and after a considerable period of non-church attendance, he became a regular attendant and supporter of the First Presbyterian church whose minister was his personal friend and whom he greatly admired.

His Farewell Address to His Neighbors in Springfield.
On the day before he was 52 years old he stood upon the platform of a railroad train ready to leave Springfield for the last time and said, "No one in my situation can appreciate my feeling of sadness at this parting. To this place, and the kindness of the people I owe everything. Here I have lived a quarter of a century, and have passed from a youth to an old man. Here my children were born, and one is buried. I now leave, not knowing when or whether ever I may return. Without the assistance of the Divine Being I cannot succeed. With that assistance I cannot fail. Trusting Him who can go with me and remain with you and be everywhere for good, let us confidently hope that all will yet be well.

To His care committing you as a hope in your prayers you will commend me, I bid you an affectionate farewell."

Lincoln in fervent prayer.
He wrote the conclusion of his 2-d annual address the morning it was delivered. The family being present, he read it to them. He then said he wished to be left alone for a short time. The family retired to an adjoining room, but not so far distant that the voice of prayer could be distinctly heard. There, closeted with God alone, surrounded by the enemies who were ready to take his course and all dear to him to God's providential care of his destiny, he calmed by communion with his Father in Heaven and courage to the danger, he came forth from that retirement ready for duty.

Prays for Union Cause with Pastor of Presbyterian Church.
During his residence in Washington Mr. Lincoln habitually attended the New York Avenue Presbyterian church. He was a warm personal friend of the pastor, Rev. Phineas D.
Gurley, D. D., whose grandson, Captain Gurley of the War Department, relates that Lincoln sat with Dr. Gurley on the rear porch of the White House during the second battle of Bull Run, and when the strain had become almost unbearable, he knelt in prayer and Mr. Lincoln knelt beside him and joined reverently in the petition. Mr. Lincoln was heard to say to a company of clergymen calling upon him in one of the darkest times of the Civil War, "My hope of success in this struggle rests on that immovable foundation, the justice and the goodness of the cause, and events are very threatening I still hope that in some way all will be well in the end, because our cause is just and God will be on our side."

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS PLAN AT AURORA.
AURORA.—Daylight savings time will be effective in Aurora commencing March 24, one month earlier than daylight time in Chicago. It is expected that consumers will circulate a petition asking that a change be made so that Chicago and Aurora daylight saving season will coincide. That question, the city attorney has announced, would have to be decided at a city election in April. Daylight time in Chicago will start April 30th.

PEORIA SCHOOL CHILDREN SAVE.
PEORIA, Ill.—(By the A. P.)— Peoria school children 8,618 of them, have saved $23,449.19 in sixteen weeks. During one week recently pupils of 24 schools in the city saved $1,183.30, a total of $471 of the children making deposits.

WORK PROGRESSING ON STATE ROADS.
LINCOLN.—Work is progressing rapidly toward obtaining deeds to land in Logan county for the state hard road. It is said all land for the road will have been acquired by February 15.

SUPREME COURT TO RULE ON PROHIBITION

Cases Involving the Law's Validity are Before Court—Many Others of Interest to be Decided.

(By The Associated Press)

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.— Important decisions involving the validity of the Illinois prohibition act, the medical practice laws, the taxicab insurance law and appropriations made by the 52nd general assembly are among opinions expected this month from the Illinois supreme court, which opened its February term today.

The court also is expected to rule on the right of a city council to oust a mayor and place another in the chair. The case grew out of a fight in the council of the little city of Atlanta in Logan county.

Mayor Samuel Iddings, a Republican, was ousted by a democratic city council last fall following a fight over confirmation of appointments, and Otto Dreher, a democratic alderman, was elevated to the mayor's chair. Iddings started a legal battle to dislodge the de facto mayor and to regain his seat, at the same time beginning suits against some members of the council for alleged slander.

In defending their ouster the council declared that Iddings used language unbecoming a mayor in the council chamber.
While the cases were raging in the courts of the city, Iddings recalled, and the people elected a third claimant to the office of mayor—J. W. Dowdy.

Although Dowdy's name was the only one printed on the ballot supporters of the Iddings faction wrote the name of the ousted mayor on their ballots and lacked only twenty-five votes of re-electing him.

George Burchick, convicted in Sangamon county of violation of the new prohibition act, is attacking its validity, claiming that county courts have no authority to grant injunctions as the law provides.

Burchick was arrested July 18, 1921, the day after the new dry law became effective, and an injunction restraining him from the use of the premises on which he was arrested, was granted by the Sangamon county court. Burchick was arrested July 18 for violating the injunction, was fined $500 for contempt of court and received a 90 day jail sentence.
The property which he occupied was owned by his brother, Joseph Burchick, who spells the family name differently.

Attorneys for Burchick claimed that the law is unconstitutional and not only because county courts have no restraining power, but because the entire law is "unreasonable," that it provides double penalties for the same violation and allows the confiscation of property.

The question of the validity of the medical practice act grew out of a fight by chiropractors against the licensing provisions of the law.
Winning an injunction restraining State Auditor Russell and State Treasurer Miller from issuing warrants against the $500,000 emergency fund for various state departments, Augustus S. Peabody, of Chicago, has appealed to the supreme court for an injunction restraining the payment of increased salaries to several state department and dis-vision heads.

Both appropriations passed by the 52nd general assembly were attacked by Peabody as unconstitutional. Judge E. S. Smith of the Sangamon county circuit court, granted an injunction in the first case but ruled that the salary increase was valid.
The supreme court has 157 cases under advisement, forty-five petitions for rehearings and 134 new cases before it at this term.

THE SILVER HORDE AT THE HIGH SCHOOL

The "Silver Horde," a picture based on Rex Beach's story, will be shown at the High school next Tuesday evening, the last of the five entertainments given for the purchase of the moving picture outfit for the High school.

The "Silver Horde" is considered Rex Beach's most powerful and dramatic story, and the film is exceptionally well directed and photographed. The story deals with the strong men of the north in a thrilling fight against the craft and wealth of Wall street.

The student body of the High school has backed these entertainments to the limit, but there has been very little support from the public. Consequently the amount of money realized on the shows is not enough to buy the machines. The school authorities are planning to continue these shows at intervals and to have one big film that is recognized as one of the newest and best pictures of the day. That the machines will eventually become a part of the school equipment is assured.

FINE COAL IN ROCK ISLAND COUNTY

MOLINE.—Coal ore, said to equal the coal of Franklin county has been discovered at the John Bailey farm near the Rock Island county home and at the Sam Stewart farm near South Moline. Holes have already been drilled, and machinery placed on the John Bailey farm, preparatory to opening the mine this spring. No defi-

BETTER THAN CALOMEL. Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best now to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lozy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "brighten" the spirits. 15c and 50c

S. W. NICHOLS WRITES LETTER FROM MEXICO

Deming, New Mexico. Dear Journal:—

I want to tell the Journal readers about my visit to this place. I have had two surprises lately; one when I went to Silver City expecting to find an attractive place and not doing so, and one here where I expected little and found much.

The city is located on a large plain with mountains in the distance. It has about five thousand population; the usual number of the regular denominations, several flourishing Catholic churches, good schools, Masonic blue lodge, Chapter and Commandery, order of the Eastern Star, Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters, Redmen and Maccabees. The K. P.'s are figuring on a state home with good prospects of getting one there.

Dr. Swope, an enthusiastic resident, has given an excellent description of the land which is indeed flowery.

The place has electric lights, three railroads, Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, and El Paso and Southwestern. The altitude is 4300 and the inhabitants claim not unpleasant heat in summer; no severely cold days in winter and nights always cool. In fact they claim it is equal to Arizona but comparisons are odious and I am now writing of New Mexico. It is also on the direct southern auto highway to California and they have facilities for camping tourists.

The place is surrounded by the Mimbres valley underlain with an inexhaustible lake of pure water and with irrigation, farming can be carried on profitably. There are large tracts of land not yet taken up and many more whose owners are just beginning to develop them. They are praying for the completion of the Elephant Butte dam, eighty miles away, and if that be done so that power for pumping may be obtained at fair cost the plains should blossom as the rose.

One man went there a few years ago with $1800 and today is wealthy with all about him to make him desirable. Two soft young men from New York went out there to harden their muscles, which were the only soft things about them, and today they are successfully carrying on hundreds of acres. They claim it is the home of Indian corn while most other crops, such as oats, kaffir corn, cane and alfalfa do well. Alfalfa is an exceptionally good crop as they can save it all right.

Last year was exceptional and one man cut seven crops from a field during the year, though five is the general rule. Most fruits do well, especially grapes.

Copper Ore in Mountains. In the mountains surrounding there are boundless deposits of copper ore which will probably be developed some time. Cattle and hogs do well and are fed profitably. A man should have capital if he goes there, for he must irrigate, but on the other hand land is cheap and well repays care and cultivation. The water is superb, fine to drink, absolutely soft, and tests above 99 percent pure. One man, Mr. Lindpuer, has a ranch of 4500 acres which he carries on at a profit, raising stock largely.

Forty miles away is a military hospital at Ft. Baird where there are 1500 soldiers of the World War.

It is of the people, though, I especially desire to write. There is Mrs. Blum, proprietor of the Park Hotel, and a lady pleasant to meet, while her place is all that can be desired. I was told that there were two or three more in the town which would compare favorably with it. At the fire department we met a truly interesting character, Mr. Hathaway. I don't suppose he is related to Shakespeare's wife, but he is a remarkable character and has had all manner of experiences in frontier life. In fact, there are yet many traces of the frontier in Deming where the primitive and the progressive jostle each other. The cow boy with his regulation outfit, the pioneer farmer with big boots, broad brimmed hat and peculiar ways meet the banker, the merchant and the lawyer all in good feeling. Mr. Hathaway has been over a good part of the world, has fought Greasers in Mexico, Indians on the frontier, bandits along the road, and while a modest man not given at all to boasting of his exploits, questioning brought out a great deal.

Our principal friends there were three: Dr. C. P. Hoffman and his charming and accomplished wife, and their young friend S. A. Lindauer, son of a pioneer settler and capitalist of the locality. The young man is a graduate of the Leland Stanford University, has traveled very extensively and is a charming and entertaining companion which may also truthfully be said about the doctor and his wife.

Visit to Columbus. One day the doctor and wife took my daughter, Mr. Lindauer and myself in the doctor's fine limousine down to Columbus, 30 miles distant. It is the place raided by the rascal Villa, a few years ago. The story of the affair is not very creditable to some persons. A colored regiment was stationed in camp Turley, in the town and several times the colonel commanding was warned of the impending raid, but like Braddock, thought it would amount to nothing and rather curtly received the persons who tried to tell him of it.

One night he and his lieutenant colonel returned from an affair in El Paso and a bit before daylight the bandits arrived. The colonel and lieutenant colonel were in no condition to command. There was but one sentry on duty and the Greasers shot him first thing, though it is claimed he got two or three of them before breathing his last. The rascals went on, fired a hotel and shot the guests as they fled, looted a lot of stores, and by that time a major had obtained permission to take charge but not to follow the raiders beyond the border, three miles distant.

Unfortunately the two machine guns in the camp were jammed and useless else a good part of the raiders might have been bagged. As it was, as soon as the U. S. troops could get to their guns and form, they went after the visitors and laid forty of them in a heap in short order. Then the pursuit began and the major forgot his orders and followed the Villians fifteen miles, straggling the road with dead Greasers, mostly all shot thru the head.

Our good friend, the doctor, went down to be of what assistance he could in caring for the wounded and did good work. The little place shows no effects now of the raid, though the road by which the bandits entered and the place where the fighting took place are pointed out.

Then we went on down three miles more to New Holomas, a border town and crossed into Old Mexico, making them quite a call. There we saw an illustrious character, General de la Luce Blanco, general of cavalry under the unfortunate Medero.

He was captured and gave his word not to return if liberated, and is now in practical exile and a soul of honor but it is said that possibly that Oregon will pardon him and avail himself of his services which must be valuable.

Mexican Customs House. While there we visited the Mexican custom house which is a one room shack. The customs officer is a fine looking man with huge moustache, dark skin and eyes and carries a young arsenal around his body and woe be to the man who would try to get away with him.

We also paid our respects to a small place called by courtesy a grocery store with a few cans of trifles in the front room, but as for the back room, O My! There we saw an array of quart bottles of all all sorts of liquor—Old Crow, Monongehala, and fifteen or twenty more. It sold at six dollars a quart, but it had no temptations for me, as I never indulge, but how much of the stuff crosses the border which is simply marked by a wire fence, no one will pretend to say.

By the way, I forgot to mention a very pleasant call at the office of the Deming Headlight, a wide awake newspaper ably conducted. There I met a gentleman named H. Dial, but he couldn't figure any relationship with my worthy friend J. H. Dial of Jacksonville. There is also another paper in the place so it is well supplied with news by enterprising men.

S. W. Nichols.

Goes Farther

A can of Calumet Baking Powder will make more pies, cakes, biscuits, muffins, etc. than a can of most other brands.

It lasts longer — goes farther because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength — therefore you use less.

When a recipe calls for two teaspoons of baking powder, use two level teaspoons of Calumet, the results will always be the same — perfectly raised bakings — remember this when you buy baking powder and don't forget that Calumet is the economic buy because it goes farther.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. cans instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound can when you want it.

Take the Gamble Out of Your Life Insurance

Your life insurance policy guarantees to pay your wife a lump sum of money upon your death. But the company does not insure or guarantee in any way that she will invest this wisely or safely. Under this form of insurance you have absolutely no assurance that the insurance money you have so carefully provided for her will do what you intended, namely, provide her an income for life.

Fortunately, it is possible today for a man to take this element of chance out of his life insurance and arrange for the insurance company to give his wife a check every month after his death as long as she lives. This is safer, wiser, and in addition will cost you from one-fourth to one-third less than the kind of insurance you have been accustomed to. If you have an adequate amount of insurance, arrange with your company to put a part or all of it on the Monthly Income basis. Otherwise, fill out and mail the attached coupon and see if the Monthly Income Policy will help you in any way. It will cost you nothing to investigate and will obligate you in no way.

INCOME TAX FACTS

Section 202 of the revenue act of 1921 deals with the basis of ascertaining taxable loss or deductible gain in the sale or other disposition of property. The act provides that cost shall be the basis with three exceptions.

The first is that in the case of property which should be included in the taxpayer's inventory, the last inventory value shall be the basis; for example, if a merchant bought in 1920 a certain article, and it was not sold by him prior to December 31, 1920, but was included in his inventory as of that date and sold in 1921, the taxable gain or deductible loss would be the difference between the selling price and the amount at which the article was carried in his inventory.

The second exception is that in the case of property acquired by gift after December 31, 1920, the basis shall be the same as that which it would have been in the hands of the donor or last preceding owner by whom it was acquired by gift. For example, a man in 1918 acquired stock in a corporation for $100 a share, and kept it until 1920, when it was worth $120 a share, and then gave it to his son, who in January, 1921, gave it to his wife, the stock at that time being worth $150 a share. If subsequently the wife sold the stock for $200 a share, her taxable profit is not $50 but $100, the gain over the cost to the last preceding owner who did not acquire the stock by gift.

In the case of property acquired by gift on or before December 31, 1920, the basis for ascertaining gain or loss from a sale or other disposition thereof shall be the fair market price or value of such property at the time of acquisition. In the case of property acquired by bequest, devise or inheritance, the fair market price or value of the property at the time of its acquisition is the basis for determining gain or loss.

Subdivision C of section 202 of the new revenue act deals primarily with the exchange of property for property. It is much more liberal than the act of 1918 in enumerating the classes of such exchanges which do not result in gain or loss to the taxpayer. In general, there is no gain or loss when property (other than stock-in-trade or property held primarily for sale) is exchanged for property of a like kind. When an individual or a partnership transfers property to a corporation and immediately thereafter is in control of such corporation—owning at least 80 percent of the voting stock and at least 80 percent of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation—no taxable gain or no deductible loss results.

Sales Prior to March 1, 1913. In the case of the sale of property acquired prior to March 1, 1913, the basis for determining taxable gain or deductible loss is cost, but the fair market price or value as of that date is important. Generally, to determine taxable gain, the March 1, 1913, value is used if more than cost, and to determine deductible loss, the March 1 value is used if less than cost. Taxpayers should read carefully section 202 (b) of the act on this point.

Following are concrete examples: A bond bought in 1912 for $500 had on March 1, 1913, a value of $750 and was sold in 1921 for $1,000. The taxable gain in $250, the excess of the selling price over March 1, 1913, value.

A bond bought in 1912 for $1,000 had a market value on March 1, 1913, of $750 and in 1921 was sold for $500. The deductible loss is $250, the excess of the market value of March 1, 1913, over the selling price.

A bond purchased in 1912 for $500 had a market value on March 1, 1913, of $1,000 and was sold in 1921 for $750. In this case there is no taxable gain and no deductible loss.

A bond purchased in 1912 for $1,000, on March 1, 1913, had a market value of $500 and in 1921 had a market value of $500 and in 1921 was sold for $750. This transaction, on a basis of cost would result in an actual loss of $250, but owing to the provisions of section 202 (b) (3) of the act the taxpayers can not deduct such loss from his gross income because the market value on March 1, 1913, was less than selling price. Neither does he have to report a gain on the transaction.

The Bank That Service Built

"O, HAPPY DAY!"

So sang George when he stood and looked straight into the faces of his friends for the first time in ten years. No matter if his understanding was artificial, he saw the world from a normal viewpoint once more.

George Watson, a worthy colored citizen of Jacksonville, became severely handicapped by the loss of both legs and the right arm when he was performing his duties as section hand for the railroad. The usual compensation was paid by the company but the sum was long since spent to keep soul and what body there was left together. He brought the last $50 to our beautiful city and purchased a lot in the car shops addition. His kind disposition and friendliness soon won him friends and boards and nails and willing hands combined to place a little house on the lot.

That has been home for George the past three years. With pads on his knees he has gotten about and cared for himself, becoming skilled with the one arm left, in doing all kinds of housework from cooking, washing, sweeping, and making his bed. This was not enough so his spare time has been devoted to tending a few chickens and making a garden.

With aid from the County this handicapped man has managed to subsist, but after all, what is the use. Unable to compete with able-bodied men for a fair chance at a job, dependent, semi-useless; is life worth the struggle?

But George was converted and joined the church and the pastor sent him out among the sick to minister to them. Smallpox entered one family in the neighborhood and he found opportunity to serve the man in isolation for two weeks. So some compensation came to him in service and he made the best of things. But one day last spring someone asked him if he would like to have artificial legs so he would have a better chance to go to a job and become independent. "Yes, Mam, I sure would," was his reply, and his face beamed as only a black face can. Plans were made and machinery was put in motion to accomplish the "feet." The pastor of the Church (McCabe M. E.) appointed a committee to raise funds and the Social Service League negotiated with the Rowley Artificial Limb Company. Slow progress was made getting the necessary $250 for the limbs and things looked a little dark for a time.

But, "there's a silver lining thru the dark clouds shining," and in this case it was the State Board of Vocational Education which rehabilitates crippled citizens. About $90 had been pledged toward the limbs, and the supervisor, Dr. Charles E. Saylor, said, "The State will pay for the limbs if the Social Service League will assume the responsibility of vocational training." As the plan had already been proposed to utilize the chickens, the hen house and the space on the lot as a start in the poultry business, this now seemed a possibility with the fund in hand and the artificers provided for.

Last Friday the American Express brought the limbs and George is now literally "on his feet." The hen house has been enlarged, proper feed has been procured and Mr. D. T. Heimlich Jacksonville poultry expert, has undertaken the training. Within a year George will be "on his feet" figuratively speaking. Is there anyone who does not wish to join him in singing, "O, Happy Day!"

One of the most commendable features in this story is the willing contributions of the members of the McCabe M. E. church. All of them are hard working people, yet they made up a fund of $96.25 without any outside aid and turned it over to the treasurer of the Social Service League. Their good pastor, Rev. Mr. Boone, led them and they are already feeling the reaction from this service to one of their number. This fund will be reserved for the purchase of chicken feed, repairs to hen house, fence for a run and more and better stock from time to time.

Dr. Saylor came from Springfield Wednesday to get acquainted with George and to inspect the new limbs. He expressed much satisfaction in the start that had been made in rehabilitation.

WOODSON

Among Woodson people who were in Jacksonville Wednesday to attend the funeral of Wallace Carter were Ellisha Adams, Miss Lucille Adams, Mrs. Paul Humphries, Mrs. Harry Smith, Pete Gaines, Albert Todd, Harry Craig, Percy Sooy, Mr. and Mrs. George Newman, Jr., Mrs. Edward Gallagher, Mrs. Howard Henry, Carl Adams, Miss Della Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Nettie Ezzard, Miss Myrtle Sooy, Mrs. W. T. Craig, Lloyd Darwent, Bert Bishop and Mr. Brazzil of Jacksonville were business callers in Woodson Wednesday.

Henry Shelton went to Galesburg Wednesday to visit with his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Watson.

Mrs. Nettie Megginson left Wednesday night for South Bend, Ind., to spend an indefinite time with her daughter, Miss Len's Megginson, who is in business there.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Shelton are to move to Jacksonville within a day or two and will reside on South Clay avenue. Mr. Shelton has had employment for some time on the hard road construction work east of Jacksonville.

Mrs. George Cunningham is at the bedside of her mother Mrs. Hannah Tendick, in Murrayville. The latter is very ill at the present time.

WILL ENFORCE THE LAW ON HEADLIGHTS

Secretary of State Emmerson Says Many Auto Accidents Caused by Failure to Follow Headlight Regulations—Asks Help of Local Officers.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Asserting that failure to comply with state automobile regulations is responsible for a large percentage of accidents on public highways, Secretary of State Emmerson recently launched a campaign for rigid enforcement of the law.

In a letter to sheriffs and police thruout the state, Secretary Emmerson asked them to co-operate with investigators from his office to bring about closer observation of the law, especially provisions regarding the dimming of headlights.

"Make driving at night safer," is the word sent out to authorities.

"A strict enforcement of the traffic laws will reduce accidents on the highways at least 50 per cent," Secretary Emmerson said.

"The state law provides that every automobile must be equipped with two front lights in front and a red light in the rear, which must be lighted when the car is in operation any time from one hour after sunset to sunrise.

"The headlights must be strong enough to be visible for a distance of at least 200 feet and unless equipped with anti-glare device or lenses which prevent a glaring or dazzling light, they must be dimmed or extinguished when within 250 feet of an automobile approaching from the opposite direction. No car must be parked at night without a light in front and one in the rear, except where permitted by provision of city ordinances.

"Statistics show that hundreds of serious accidents happen every year thru failure to observe this law. The most common offense is failure to dim glaring lights on approaching another automobile.

In many communities this provision of the law is almost totally ignored and practically nowhere is it consistently observed.

"I am determined to do everything I can with the limited number of inspectors at my command to remedy this condition and I believe local authorities will co-operate heartily in this effort.

How to Care For Your Eyes

Eyestrain is one of the most insidious evils of the times. Hard usage, bright lights, nervous tension—all put too great a load upon the eyes. The only safeguard is to wear the proper glasses as soon as you need them—possibly for a short time only.

The only safe plan is to have your eyes examined before this strain weakens the delicate nerves and muscles that control the vision—just as filling a small cavity will save a tooth. Our examination is safe, sane and scientific.

WOMAN'S ILLS MAKE UNHAPPY HOME.

There is no question but what the ills of women conspire against domestic harmony. The husband cannot understand these troubles and the physician finds it hard to cure them; therefore the over-worked wife and mother continues to drag around day in and day out with headaches and backache, fretful and nervous.

Such women should be guided by the experience of women whose letters we are continually publishing in this paper. Many of them declare that they have been completely restored to health, strength and consequent happiness by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound after doctors and all other medicines had failed to help them. It will surely pay women who suffer from such ailments to try it.

UNITED STATES STEEL

CLOSED AT A GAIN
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—Apprehension stirred by soldier bonus legislation developments at Washington exercised a depressing effect on stock market operators in the early hours of today's exchange, but apparently was allayed the market engaging in a bullish demonstration in the final hours.

United States Steel closed at a gain of almost three points, affiliated issues also rising one to three points.

Trading of low priced rails was another feature of the demand for Seaboard Airline common and preferred, St. Louis-Southwestern preferred, Kansas City Southern, Rock Island and Pere Marquette common and preferred resulting in gross gains of one to four points.

People's Gas, local traction, oil and motor were again bid up against the shorts.

The few backward features included Columbia Graphophone common and preferred the latter breaking sharply on announcement of receivership proceedings.
Sales amounted to 735,000 shares.

The open rate for call money held at the new high of $1.35 with the usual shading to 14 per cent in private loans on high grade collateral. Time funds were quoted at 4 1/2 to 5 per cent, the lower rate prevailing for thirty to ninety day accommodations.

After a further sharp rise on which demand sterling was carried to the new high of $1.35 foreign exchanges reacted approximately the British rate falling to $1.35; Continental rates reflected these sudden changes aside from Danish, Norwegian, Swedish and Greek, remittances which held at or above the highest quotations of the previous day.

Victory 3's were the only remarkably exception to the better tone of the United States war bonds, easing to below par. To-

SPECIAL SERVICES AT WHITE HALL CHURCHES

Interesting Program in Prospect at Various Churches Next Sunday—Other White Hall News.

WHITE HALL, Feb. 9.—Father and Son and Abraham Lincoln are to receive large consideration in connection with the services at various churches next Sunday. An important lecture on Lincoln is promised the congregation at the M. E. church at night, for which special invitations will be extended for the attendance of the G. A. R. and the American Legion posts. This lecture is to be by Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick.

The organization of the men's class under Rev. Charles Ross is to feature the Sunday school session at the Christian church. Talks will be made by S. G. Sykes on "If I Were a Boy," Robert Piper on "If I Were a Dad," and by Dr. F. N. McLaren on "What Next?" A vocal solo will be rendered by V. T. Winters. Then will follow the preaching service, when Pastor Ross' sermon subject will be "The Religion of Abraham Lincoln." A male quartet will sing. A Father and Son service will be held at 7:30, the sermon subject being "Father Son & Co." There will be singing by the men's chorus. Men and boys will occupy the center of the auditorium, and women and girls the two wings.

Lincoln's birthday will have full consideration in connection with the sessions at the Presbyterian church.

Best Battery for Winter Use

COLD weather driving makes heavier demands upon any storage battery. Engines are slow, oil is sluggish—gasoline vaporizes slowly—lights burn longer—and the severe cold tends to cause battery deterioration. Only a battery of maximum power and vitality can meet these demands.

The Prest-O-Lite Storage Battery has proven in the toughest of cold weather tests, to be by far the best battery for winter use.

Why be satisfied with anything short of the best? There's a Prest-O-Lite for every car.

COMMISSION TO HEAR CHICAGO CASE

Street Car Controversy to Come Up Before Commerce Commission Friday.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 9.—The general rehearing on the Chicago street car controversy is scheduled to begin before the Illinois commerce commission next Friday.

Restrained by a federal court injunction from making effective its 5-cent fare order of last November the commission has reopened the entire case with the principal object a matter of conjecture. In some quarters it is believed the commission plans to issue an order for a 6-cent fare or some rate lower than the present 8-cent fare which Chicago streetcarriers now pay.

It has also been suggested that the rehearing may result in an order for changes in service, recruiting and more cars.

Continuation of the hearing of Mayor Victor P. Mitchell's petition for a 5-cent car fare in Peoria is also scheduled for next Friday. Cleo J. Lindly, vice-chairman of the commission, will probably conduct the Peoria hearing while the rest of the commission is in Chicago.

Resumption of Springfield's street car case is set for tomorrow. The case is a citation of the Illinois Power Company, formerly the Springfield Consolidated Railway Company, to show why the 7-cent car fare in Springfield should not be lowered.

Other cases docketed for today follow:

Application of the United Motor Bus Company for authority to operate a bus line between Danville and neighboring towns.

Application of the Southern Illinois Light & Power Company for authority to issue a series of first lien and refunding mortgage bonds to the amount of $300,000 and to issue its first mortgage gold bonds dated April 1, 1913.

The case of the Peoria Railway Terminal Company against the Peoria Railway Company and the Peoria Traction Company relative to the rights of the respective companies to the use of street railway tracks in the city.

Complaint of the city of Leroy, McLean county, against rates charged by the Leroy Electric Light Power and Heating company.

Thirteen utility companies have been cited to appear before the commission Thursday to show why they have not complied with an order of January 5 requiring the companies to file reports demanded by the commission. The companies are: Bloomington & Normal Railway & Light company; Cairo Electric & Traction company; Danville Street Railway company; Danville Street Railway & Light company; Decatur Railway & Light company; Galesburg Railway, Light & Power company; Jacksonville Railway and Light company; Madison County Light & Power company; Mount City Light and Water company; Northern Illinois Light & Power company; Quincy Railway company; Urbana & Champaign Railway Gas & Electric company and the Urbana Light, Heat and Power company.

Complaints against the Illinois Bell Telephone company's rates for service in the rural districts of Grundy county are set for hearing Thursday.

The commission also plans to hear the petition of Bloomington township, McLean county, for a division by the commission of the costs of a crossing improvement over or under the Chicago & Alton railroad tracks. The county of McLean and the townships of Bloomington and Dale are the parties to the case.

SHIPS ESSENTIAL IN BUILDING TRADE

Are of as Great Importance as Goods Themselves—Says United States Needs Great Fleet of Ocean Going Vessels.

(By The Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 9.—Vessels are the messengers, the servants and the builders of trade, E. C. Plummer, United States Shipping Board Commissioner told the Bankers' Association of Foreign Trade here recently. "They are almost as essential to the proper development of markets for American goods in foreign lands as is the presence of the goods themselves. Ships as an adjunct of trade with countries beyond seas are priceless," he added.

"Congress by passing the Jones law came to the understanding how war developments had made the services of American vessels in the foreign trade of this country absolutely essential to our continued prosperity," said Mr. Plummer. "An adequate fleet of American ships would in its mere operation create a new and well paid industry which would give direct employment to tens of thousands of men and pay to our own people the millions upon millions of dollars which otherwise go out of this country to enrich other nations."

"A great fleet of ocean going vessels would give direct employment to tens of thousands of men in our shipyards and repair docks. But the dominating fact which brings home a realization of the truth that our ships must remain on the sea is the fact that the people of this country have so increased their production that they have vast surpluses which must find markets in foreign lands or millions of people in this country will have their opportunities to produce and earn, crippled or destroyed. It is the unsold surplus that closes the factory door, that cuts off the weekly pay check, that sends men into the streets hunting for work.

"Yet those direct benefits coming from American ships constitute but one feature of this national problem. Every cargo of coal, grain, manufactured goods, fruit, sent abroad, not only brings to our own people its equivalent in money or value, but it also furnishes an opportunity for our people to produce another cargo, to replace that which has been sent abroad, and thus it gives additional employment both to home labor and home capital."

JOHN D. ORNELLAS INJURED IN FALL

John D. Ornellas suffered a fracture of the collar bone and was otherwise painfully bruised when he fell from a tree at his residence on King street about 4:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Mr. Ornellas was engaged in trimming a tree and in some manner slipped and fell from a ladder a distance of twenty feet. He was taken to Our Savior's hospital where he was attended by Dr. W. H. Weirich. An X-ray revealed the fracture. Another X-ray will be taken today to see if there are any other injuries.

RUSSELL MCCONNELL MARRIED IN DENVER

Former Resident Weds Miss Bertha Gimpel—Will Make Their Home in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McConnell, 345 Sandusky street, have received word of the marriage of their son, Russell McConnell to Miss Bertha Gimpel. The ceremony was said in Denver, Sunday, February 5. Mr. McConnell is a veteran of the World War and served overseas. The Denver News of Tuesday, February 7, has this to say of the wedding:

"A surprise to the younger social set, in which both of the principals were prominent, is the announcement of the marriage Sunday afternoon of Miss Bertha Gimpel and Russell McConnell of Jacksonville, Ill."

"Altho Mr. McConnell's attention to Miss Gimpel had been noted in the circles in which they move, the young couple had kept secret the plans for their wedding and Sunday afternoon they stole a march on their friends and were married at the home of the Rev. George F. Sevier. Miss Antoinette Gimpel attended her sister and Allan Stewart was best man. The bride was natty attired in a gown of dark blue Canton crepe, heavily embroidered in crystals, with which she wore a black satin hat. Her bouquet was of bride's roses. Miss Antoinette Gimpel wore black chiffon velvet and also carried roses.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Gimpel and is one of the most popular of the younger set. She was graduated from Manual Training High school last June and since finishing her studies has been actively engaged socially.

"Mr. McConnell recently came to Denver from Jacksonville. Following a honeymoon, the young couple will make their home here."
